
Beachcomber and Mont Choisy Le Golf ambassador agreement with Dean Burmester

The recent winner of the Tshwane Open, the South African Dean Burmester has been named official ambassador to Beachcomber Resorts & Hotels and Mont Choisy Le Golf.

"I am really excited to start a relationship with such a lovely destination and facilities as Beachcomber and Mont Choisy Le Golf. I've always loved coming to Mauritius and to be partnered with one of the best resort groups and this new golf course on the island is awesome. I am really looking forward to working with them and promoting the resorts," said the 28-year-old, who is one of the biggest hitters around.

Passion for sport runs in the family for Burmester. His father Mark played international cricket for Zimbabwe while his mother Michelle is a talented golfer who holds the women's course record at the Royal Harare Golf Club.

After winning for the first time as a professional in 2013 at the Polokwane Classic, Dean has added five more Sunshine Tour titles to his trophy cabinet before triumphing in his home country in March at the Tshwane Open, a tournament co-sanctioned by the Sunshine Tour and the European Tour.

The South African player will sport the Beachcomber Resorts & Hotels and Mont Choisy Le Golf on his tour bag and the newest and only 18-hole golf course in the North of Mauritius opening in November 2017, will be his home course for the next two years. Guests staying at Beachcomber golf resorts enjoy privileged access to this par 72 championship course crafted by the renowned South African golf architect, Peter Matkovich.

The country's leading hotel brand, Beachcomber Resorts & Hotels operates an amazing collection of four dedicated golf resorts. Paradis Beachcomber Golf Resort & Spa, Dinarobin Beachcomber Golf Resort & Spa, Trou aux Biches Beachcomber Golf Resort & Spa and Canonnier Beachcomber Golf Resort & Spa offer a broad spectrum of experiences to enable the discerning golf travellers to live out their passion in the most enchanting of settings.

About Beachcomber

Beachcomber Resorts & Hotels is the pioneer and leader of the Mauritian tourism industry. Since the creation of Park Hotel in 1952, a collection of 11 resorts have emerged over the years, including the mythical Royal Palm Mauritius in 1985, considered by everyone as the reference in hospitality for luxury holidays in Mauritius.

Beachcomber has exported the tradition of Mauritian hospitality beyond the shores of the island, with the launching of Sainte Anne Resort & Spa in Seychelles, in 2002.

The Group is presently expanding its collection, with the integration of the Beachcomber French Riviera Resort & Spa, situated on the Côte d'Azur, in France.

The collection of 10 resorts affords a choice of accommodation options ranging from rooms and apartments to suites and villas. Each hotel is imbued with a particular history and cachet, embodying an image of discrete luxury.

Social responsibility – Fondation Espoir Développement (FED), by Beachcomber

Set up and financed by Beachcomber since 1999, with the participation of hotels and employees, this foundation takes care of these main projects:

- Projet Employabilité Jeunes (PEJ): professional insertion of school drop-outs through a training programme and industrial attachments.
- Collaboration with NGOs, schools and associations
- Regional projects – youth mentoring: the "Amour et Espoir" NGO; IT initiation; youth monitoring via the "Duke of Edinburgh International Award" programme, participation of regional sports clubs in the organisation of the Beachcomber UTRB Trail 2015

Social responsibility – Local Hands

Programme launched in 2006 to support small local artisans by providing them with training and guidance as they embark upon the process of creation, production, marketing and sales.

Sustainable development – our environmental actions – EarthCheck label

Sustainable development and environmental protection constitute real considerations within the Group, which has set up, amongst other initiatives, practices that ensure energy savings and favour renewable energy sources. These initiatives in favour of sustainable development have been recognised and rewarded, with two of our hotels recently obtaining the EarthCheck Benchmarked Bronze accreditation for their ongoing commitment to environmentally responsible practices.
